

Confirmed COVID-19 Outbreak declared at Bow Valley Commons

This information is current as of Oct. 4, 2022, 9:32 am

Hello Bow Valley residents and primary contacts,

Alberta Health Services has declared Bow Valley to be in a Confirmed COVID-19 Outbreak. Six residents and two staff have tested positive for COVID-19. The residents and staff are isolating and there are currently no other symptomatic cases.

Please monitor yourself for the following COVID-19 symptoms and, if you have any, please isolate in your suite and inform Reception:

Fever	Cough
Chills	Muscle/joint aches
Shortness of breath/difficulty breathing	Nausea/vomiting/diarrhea/unexplained loss of appetite
Runny nose	Nasal congestion
Feeling unwell/fatigued	Headache
Sore throat	Painful swallowing
Loss of sense of smell or taste	Conjunctivitis/pink eye

- You are encouraged to wear a mask if you are outside your suite or if anyone is in your suite, including visitors, home care, housekeeping, or maintenance employees.
- Continue to maintain proper hand hygiene by washing hands regularly or using hand sanitizer.
- If you have a medical appointment scheduled, please advise their office you are coming from a community in Confirmed COVID-19 Outbreak.

As your community manager, I will provide an update as the days progress. Thank you for your understanding.
