Yes, you must be a Canadian Citizen or Permanent Resident (landed immigrant) and must have lived in Canada for 10 years or in Calgary for one year to apply with Silvera.

4. What does “proof of income” mean?

Proof of income shows how much you make to be able to qualify for affordable (discounted) housing. The government requires your Notice of Assessment (NOA), which is your processed income tax assessment. Proof of any other income not included in your NOA (example: private pension, out of country pension, investment income) is also required. If you cannot locate your NOA, call the Canada Revenue Agency at 1.800.959.8281 to request a copy.

5. Why do I need a functional assessment?

The functional assessment is a series of questions that helps Silvera make sure you have all the services you need. This is used to help match you to the right Silvera community for you, so we can help you “Live your best life” -- Silvera’s primary purpose.

6. What is the waitlist to live with Silvera?

Your place on our waitlist is determined by your needs and situation, not your application date. Depending on the priority of each new application received, you may move up and down on the waitlist. We cannot inform you of your exact position on the waitlist due to its constantly shifting nature.

When we have a vacancy available, our Sales & Leasing team will contact you to discuss the next steps, which includes an extensive conversation to ensure we are best meeting your needs, and that you are ready to move. The Sales & Leasing team then arranges an intake interview and tour at the available community.

If there are any changes to your situation while you are on the waitlist, such as a change in income, housing, or health, please let us know by calling 403.567.5301 or emailing leasing@silvera.ca.

7. Can I place my name on the waitlist even though I am not actively looking to move?

The waitlist is for people who are currently looking to move; for example, within 60 days of being notified of a vacancy. What kinds of services does Silvera provide in seniors' communities?

With 36 locations across the city, Silvera provides a full spectrum of offerings.

The two main categories are:

- Non-Market Rental Housing (Independent living), which is housing with accommodation only.
- Subsidized Housing with Full Services (Supportive living), which is housing with full services.

Silvera's independent living consists of self-contained apartments or townhouses with full kitchens and offer safe, secure, affordable accommodation for seniors with access to a community hub for maintenance support (including 24/7 emergency on-call service) and other programs. Residents also have access to Resident Support Coordinators (RSCs) who can guide residents to the supports they need. In these communities, residents do their own shopping, cooking, and cleaning. (Independent living locations are offered in market, below market and non-market or Rent Geared to Income rent models).

Silvera also offers subsidized supportive living. These communities offer three meals a day, 24/7 snacks, weekly housekeeping, Life, Learning and Leisure programs (co- created educational, fun, recreational and social activities), non-medical employees on-site 24 hours per day, maintenance (including emergency 24/7 on-call service), call bells in every suite, and health and safety protocols. All locations provide access to hair salon services, as well as a variety of paramedical services like massage therapy, dental hygiene, audiology, and foot care with some locations offering weekly doctor visits onsite.

Some supportive living communities are pet friendly. Silvera supportive living comes in all sizes, from large, vibrant multi-story buildings to cozier, smaller one-level communities. There is a range of mandatory service packages in supportive living. All service packages come with the minimum residual guarantee from the Government of Alberta and Silvera, ensuring you have a minimum of $370 left after your rent and service package are paid each month.

Silvera also operates two supportive living communities with health supports:

- 1) Mobility supports Shawnessy (SW) for those that are physically or visually impaired.
- 2) Memory care support for individuals with early-stage dementia at Beaverdam (SE).

These programs provide residents with extra supports to help them live independently as long as possible.

Livingston Terrace Apartments, Gilchrist Apartments North, Westview Residence West, along Willow Park on the Bow (which has options to access nearby services through Aspen Commons community) offers self-contained apartments. They are priced either 1%, 11%, 21% and 41% below CMHC Calgary (YYC) median market rates.

12. I need housing immediately. How long does the entire process take before I am advised if I qualify?

There are situations where Silvera may be able to house people on short notice, but we do not offer emergency housing. If you have an immediate or urgent need for housing, please apply through the YYC Seniors Housing portal or call our Sales & Leasing team at 403.567.5301, we will do our very best to help. The process and length of time can vary widely, in general vacancies in the supportive living locations can usually become available more quickly than that of the independent living locations.

The size of suites varies depending on the community. Silvera offers single and double suites, as well as studios, 1-bedroom units, and some 2-bedroom units. Please note that two-bedroom suites or the larger suites in supportive living are reserved for couples or two people choosing to live together. In supportive living, the range in suite size for affordable housing is 180 sq. ft. to 386 sq. ft.; whereas in well-priced market, the range is from 338 to 780 sq. ft. (due to 1-and 2-bedroom offerings).

17. What is the maximum income to be eligible for affordable (discounted) housing?

In partnership with all levels of government Silvera offers several affordable independent living options for seniors who qualify. The maximum income for a one-bedroom suite is $65,000 and the maximum income for a two-bedroom suite is $77,000.

18. How much income do I need to have to qualify for housing?

Silvera considers all applications and income amounts; however, your income may influence the communities you are eligible to live in. Silvera has a number of communities that provide safe, secure, and affordable housing for seniors with low-to-moderate incomes. In addition, Silvera has some communities with rent structures that accommodate seniors with higher incomes as well.

On average to live in a Silvera location the following is recommended:

Supportive Living:

- a. Bow Valley Commons or Shouldice Commons – approximate minimum income of $2,120/ month or greater to accommodate the maximum service package.
- b. Aspen Commons, Beaverdam Commons, Gilchrist Commons, Shawnessy Commons, Spruce Commons – approximate minimum income of $2,240 / month or greater to accommodate the maximum service package.

Discounts may be available depending on your income at select locations. Bank statements will be required for discounts to be approved in addition to your NOA, so that you are guaranteed $370 left after paying rent and the service package.

2) Independent Living:

- a. Single / 1 person – approximate minimum income of $447 / month
- b. Couple / 2 persons – approximate minimum income of $713 / month

19. Can my family help with my rent and service package cost for supportive living, if my income is too low for a community I want?

No, your family cannot assist in the cost for any location requiring income eligibility, as mandated by government regulations, because the rent is calculated based on your gross monthly income from your individual NOA, and service packages must be adjusted to provide a monthly guaranteed income.

Only at our market properties are families allowed to assist with supportive living costs. As mentioned above, families can help with costs at Westview Town Suites, Westview Residence West, and Willow Park on the Bow market suites.

20. Can I purchase meals or housekeeping from a supportive living community if I live in an independent building?
